

Fireflies

Fireflies
Are flashiest
On moonless nights
Like needles of light
They pierce the darkness
Each is nameless and brief—
A trace—
Momentary yet lasting
Each seems a fragment
Not of something broken
But a fragment
Seeking all the others
To become a whole
Every flash
Is a step
In a night journey
Similar to ours
Every flash
Is a message
In a codeless language
Of light
Like the little thoughts, little ideas
We just let fly
Without trying
To catch
