

AQA Announces Call for Nominations for 3 Open Board Positions

The AQA National Office is calling for nominations for open positions on its Board of Directors. The At-Large position was vacated by our new Executive Director, Brad Barth, MD. The other two positions were newly created by the AQA Board of Directors at its annual meeting in October.

The positions available for nominations are:

- One At-Large position
- One Resident Director – PGY2 or greater
- One current member of The Pharos Editorial Board

Please provide a letter of nomination that includes the following:

- Member's name
- Degree(s)
- Current employer
- Qualifications for nomination
- CV

Nominees will be reviewed by the AQA Nominations Committee and forwarded to the Board for a majority vote. Nominees must be active AQA members. Please send nominations to Lori Kerr at lori@alphaomegaalpha.org, no later than Monday, January 22, 2024. Per the AQA Constitution, we cannot accept self-nominations, except for The Pharos Editorial Board.

Newly elected Board members will be invited to attend the mid-year Board Update on April 24, 2024 and the annual AQA Board of Directors' meeting, October 25-26, 2024, location TBD.
